Chloe Rupprecht is an outstanding example of what a Griffin student should aspire to be. She comes to school every day excited to learn. Her positive attitude encourages friends and classmates to be positive and to do their best as well. Chloe can be counted on to participate appropriately in group activities and to use problem solving skills well in both academic and social situations. She enjoys challenges and doesn't let mistakes keep her from trying again. Chloe is the kindergarten daughter of Colton and Heather Rupprecht.
