Remington is our March Student of the Month! Remi comes to school every day not only ready to learn but ready to be an example for others in every aspect of The Griffin Way. She is motivated to focus and do her best even when the surroundings might make that difficult. Remi consistently practices being kind and respectful which makes her someone her classmates and teachers can count on when looking for a good partner, group member, or friend. She definitely has earned recognition as Student of the Month! Congratulations Remi!
